

Wilbert and Henry Chope

1950

PIONEERS OF I.N. - EDWARD MCCORMICK BLAIR,
W. E. CHOPE, GEORGE B. FOSTER, H. R. CHOPE

1951

1951 U Frame, AccuRay Model D Console and I.N. engineer Fred Truxall

I.N. TEAM - 1952

Industrial Nucleonics founders Bert Chope,
Roy Chope and George Foster at work in 1953

1953

John Miller, Will Adams, George Williams, Bert Chope, Earl Slusher, George Foster, Roy Chope, and George Butler in Bldg 3 conference room. [Below note is from back of photo]

1953

John Miller, Will Adams, George Williams, Bert Chope, Earl Slusher, George Foster, Roy Chope and George Butler in Bldg 3 conference room

Process Control Theory
Case Institute of Technology
June 10 - 28, 1957

Bottom

Row 1 J. E. Jednacz, K. S. Visvanathan, W. H. Ko, C. G. Pitner, J. F. Coughlin, F. W. Truxall
L to R. P. H. Stirling, M. B. Brown, J. W. Elek, R. D. Crown

Middle

Row 2 E. G. Davisson, I. Lefkowitz, J. R. Canter, D. J. Goldstein, G. R. Moreland
L to R. J. F. Sandelein, L. Goodman, S. H. Goodhue, P. G. Sauer

Top

Row 3 W. R. Fulgham, W. S. Shaw, D. L. Murray, P. A. Orner, M. O. Gernard, D. P. Eckman
L to R. J. K. Slap, E. Holben, D. P. Michel, J. P. Morgan, Jr.

Senator John W. Bricker, W.E. Chope, president of Industrial Nucleonics, and William Ells, aide to Governor C. William O'Neill, break ground on Sept. 11, 1957 for the new Industrial Nucleonics Corporation plant at 650 Ackerman Rd, Columbus, Ohio